

SYMPOSIUM

APPEARANCE MATTERS: TACKLING THE PHYSICAL AND PSYCHOSOCIAL CONSEQUENCES OF DISSATISFACTION WITH APPEARANCE

ISCH COST Action IS1210

Monday 13 April, 2015

14:30-18:15

Location

CENTRE OF NATURAL SCIENCES

HUNGARIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

Budapest, 1117 Magyar tudósok körútja. 2.

Main Conference Hall

	PROGRAMME - Monday, 13 th April, 2015
14:30	Opening
14:35 – 15:05	Nichola Rumsey , Chair of the Action, Centre for Appearance Research, Department of Health & Social Sciences, University of West of England, Bristol, UK Appearance Matters: Tackling the Physical and Psychosocial Consequences of Dissatisfaction with Appearance
15:05 – 15:35	Pál Szabó , Institute of Psychology, University of Debrecen, Debrecen, Hungary Body image and body satisfaction: biological, psychological and sociocultural aspects, on the basis of epidemiological studies in Hungary.
15:35 – 16:05	Anna Kende , Institute of Psychology, Department of Social and Educational Psychology, Eötvös Loránd University, Budapest, Hungary Prejudice against Overweight People: Moral Concerns and the Attribution of Responsibility
16:05 – 16:25	Coffee break

16:25 – 16:55	Márta Fülöp, Institute of Cognitive Neuroscience and Psychology, Research Center of Natural Sciences, Hungarian Academy of Sciences, Budapest, Hungary The role of adaptive and non-adaptive competitiveness in attitudes towards the body
16:55 – 17:25	Martin Persson, Scientific officer & Grant Holder of the Action, The Cleft Collective, Centre of Appearance Research, University West of England, Bristol, UK Face Value: Optimising the psychosocial care for individuals with cleft in Europe
17:25 –	Free discussion between presenters and the audience

We are looking forward to seeing you there!